

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Friday, Dec. 29

2000

Stop smoking in the new year

The NASA Exchange is offering a smoking cessation class for civil servants, their dependents, contractors and retirees beginning Jan. 16. The series of eight, 1-hour classes focuses on how to make educated choices to become a non-smoker. Cost is $50 for contractors, retirees and dependents and free for civil servants. To register, send an e-mail to Pat Mirandy or call 544-7570.

Civil servants' timecards due 10 a.m. Friday. Call 544-7312

Open season enrollment in Thrift Savings Plan ends Jan. 31

Yellow special visitor pass extended through March 30

Use of the yellow special visitor pass for those individuals who have demonstrated a need to drive a decaled vehicle to enter Redstone Arsenal but do not have a badge has been extended through March 30. To pick up a new pass, visit Bldg. 4312 or the Bldg. 4200 lobby. For more information, call 544-4538.

SHARP mentors needed

Marshall will be placing 26 students in the 2001 Summer High School Apprenticeship Research Program (SHARP) and needs mentors. SHARP is an eight-week paid apprenticeship for high school students who reside within commuting distance to a NASA field installation. To become a mentor, call Alicia Beam at 544-2849.

For inclement weather closure instructions, call 544-HELP, Option 5